Course Overview

Schedule

Theory 2 hrs / Practice 6 hrs /
Independent 7 hrs per week

Location

Building 58, Faculty of Fine Arts –
Room 58M04, Floor M

Format

Culminates in a live Fashion Show presentation of completed garments

คำอธิบายรายวิชา — Course Description

Students apply all curriculum principles to propose and develop a fashion design project of personal interest. The process covers topic proposal, research, data analysis, problem-solving, sketching, and final design – through to the production of actual garments.

All stages are documented in a written report, supervised by a thesis committee and faculty advisor. The completed collection must be presented in a Fashion Show.

Our Brand

Presentations are communication tools that can be used as demonstration lectures, speeches, reports, and more. Mostly presented before an audience, they serve a variety of purposes — making them powerful tools for convincing and teaching.

Our Mission

Empowering students to develop a unique design identity through rigorous research, craftsmanship, and creative expression.
