

Carl Furman

123, Ellis Street
Boston, MA, 01234
(123) 456 789

---

OBJECTIVE

A good challenging and responsible position in project and facilities engineering department and management.

EXPERIENCE

1986-Present Kingvia Industrial Company Limited, Eaton, MI

Facilities Engineer

- To supervise the phases of production, development and the maintainence.
- To plan and install the construction, design and maintainance programs for the new advanced projects.
- To initiate the direction to the personnel for the maintainance, engineering and construction departments.
- To reduce the estimated cost of the project by efficiently planning the phases of the project expenditure.
- To supervise the personnel.
- To prepare the contracts and bid sheets for the construction facilities and position.
- To maintain a good communication with the internal and external personnel.
- To initiate safely procedures according to the engineering principles.
- To establish and maintain the standards for production, inspection, testing and maintainance.
- To prepare the entire budget of the project considering various financial matters.

1981-1985 Kingvia Industrial Company Limited, Eaton, MI

Mechanical Engineer

- To plan and implement the modernization program to enhance the capability of the industry.
- To handle the entire staff, supervisors, workers working on the project.
- To install new advanced equipments required for enhancement.
- Reduction in the equipment down time and the increase in the C/P/T savings by proper planning and installation of the maintainance program.

EDUCATION

Michigan Technological University, Houghton, MI
Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering, 1981