

SHOUT CASTING

ESM21063 Shoutcasting (1-4-4)

Esports commentary, which is similar to a sports commentator, describes the game, analyzes strategies, and provides information to viewers to make the viewing experience more enjoyable. It also has another meaning related to streaming technology, which is a system for creating radio stations and streaming audio online called shout cast.

Duty

- Competition description
- Analyze playing strategies and techniques
- Tell a relevant story to enhance the viewing experience.

Essential skills

Communication skills

- Able to speak clearly, have an attractive tone of voice, and use language appropriately.

Game knowledge

It is essential to have a good understanding of the rules, mechanics, and metadata of the game being voiced.

Analysis

Able to quickly and accurately analyze game situations

Immediate problem solving

Able to handle unexpected events or technical problems during live broadcasts.

Personality

Self-confident, natural, and able to create a unique identity.

